Warning: You are requesting to opt out of <program name> for <name>. If you do this, you may lose all health coverage. We cannot guarantee you will qualify for other programs. We cannot guarantee you will qualify again for the coverage you are about to give up.

You have the right to end your health coverage if you want to apply for other health coverage, but please talk to your county or case worker before making this decision if you have any questions about this information.
Warning: You are requesting to opt out of <program name> for <name>. If you do this, you may lose all health coverage. We cannot guarantee you will qualify for other programs. We cannot guarantee you will qualify again for the coverage you are about to give up. Even if you apply again and qualify, you will not get back the 12 months of guaranteed coverage you have now. Health First Colorado and CHP+ guarantee 12 months of health coverage for you and your baby. The 12 months of guaranteed coverage begins when the baby is born. If you give up your coverage to see if you qualify for something else, you are giving up the 12 months of guaranteed coverage. You have the right to end your health coverage if you want to apply for other health coverage, but please talk to your county or case worker before making this decision if you have any questions about this information.
