

Finalized English	Finalized Spanish
Tear Here This letter is about your medical benefits. This letter tells you what you qualify for and next steps. What you qualify for Medical Assistance Benefits We reviewed your information for Medical Assistance benefits and made a decision on [date3] at [time]. Some of your benefits have changed. The people in your household may have qualified for different benefits. The boxes below tell you about these benefits. For questions about the Medical Assistance you qualify for, contact [contactName] at HCPF at [contactPhoneNumber] or [contactAddress]. [firstName] [lastName] Health First Colorado ID: [stateld] [firstName] does not qualify for: ✖ [benefitCategory]. You don't qualify for Presumptive Eligibility for the Health First Colorado Buy-In Program because you did not tell us that you are employed in your health coverage application. This program is for people who are employed. ☐ If you have questions about why you don't qualify for Presumptive Eligibility, ask the presumptive eligibility site that helped you. ☐ Presumptive Eligibility is a program that provides temporary coverage for some people while their health coverage application is being processed. ☐ Your health coverage application is still being reviewed to see if you qualify for other programs. Contact your county Department of Human Services if you have questions. Sign up to get helpful information about your Health First Colorado benefits by text! Text "JOIN" to 66596. Message and data rates may apply.
We reviewed your information for Medical Assistance benefits and made a decision on [date3] at [time]. Some of your benefits have changed. The people in your household may have qualified for different benefits. The boxes below tell you about these benefits. For questions about the Medical Assistance you qualify for, contact [contactName] at HCPF at [contactPhoneNumber] or [contactAddress]. ✖ [benefitCategory]. You don't qualify for Health First Colorado Presumptive Eligibility because you did not tell us that you are a parent or caretaker relative in your health coverage application. This program is for people who are a parent or caretaker relative of at least one dependent child in the household.

[firstName] [lastName] Health First Colorado ID: [stateId] [firstName] qualifies for: ✔ [benefitCategory]. Your benefits start on [benefitStartDate]. We sent your health coverage application to your eligibility site for processing. You will get another letter to tell you if you are approved for ongoing health coverage. Presumptive Eligibility is a program that provides temporary coverage for some people while their health coverage application is being processed. ☐ Your health coverage application is still being processed to see if you qualify for other programs. Contact your county Department of Human Services if you have questions. If your application is approved for the Health First Colorado Buy-In Program, you may need to make monthly premium payments. Learn more about Health First Colorado Buy-In at hcpf.colorado.gov/buyin-adult. You can also ask your county. Find your county's contact information online at hcpf.colorado.gov/counties. You need to complete and submit a disability application, even if you are 65 or older. ☐ If you do not have a current disability determination from the Social Security Administration (SSA), please fill out the Health First Colorado Disability Application at hcpf.colorado.gov/forms#by-mail to apply. ☐ You are not required to apply for Social Security Administration (SSA) disability. You don't need to complete the Health First Colorado Disability Application if you have an SSA disability determination.
Health First Colorado (Colorado's Medicaid Program) Presumptive Eligibility Temporary Card Name: [firstName] [lastName] Health First Colorado ID: [cin] PE Coverage Start Date: [indvAsstBeginDate] PE Coverage End Date: [indvAsstEndDate] For questions about Health First Colorado Presumptive Eligibility benefits or to find a doctor: Benefits: Go to CO.gov/HCPF/Presumptive-Eligibility Find a Doctor: Go to CO.gov/HCPF For other questions: Contact your Presumptive Eligibility technician If your eligibility is determined prior to the coverage end date above, your Health First Colorado Presumptive Eligibility may be terminated.
✖ [benefitCategory]. You don't qualify for Presumptive Eligibility for the Health First Colorado Buy-In Program because you did not tell us that you have a disability in your health coverage application. This program is for people with disabilities. ☐ If you have questions about why you don't qualify for Presumptive Eligibility, ask the presumptive eligibility site that helped you. ☐ Presumptive Eligibility is a program that provides temporary coverage for some people while their health coverage application is being processed. ☐ Your health coverage application is still being processed to see if you qualify for other programs. Contact your county Department of Human Services if you have questions.
Click on the User Verification Form below to enter more information.	