BHA is working with Behavioral Health Administrative Service Organizations (BHASOs) to provide care for people who need help paying or are uninsured. Find the BHASO that serves your area to get help. You can also register now using the information you already submitted. If you don't want to now, you can register later by selecting 'Manage my benefits' in the top navigation. You must then select 'Register for behavioral health services.'
Contact your regional Behavioral Health Administrative Service Organization to get help now.
