

Finalized English	Finalized Spanish
Your address has changed. Please review and update all of your housing and utility expenses. Phone bills do not need to be updated.
Did your shelter or utility costs change?
Because your address changed, your rent/mortgage and utilities may be different too. Please review these before saving. Skipping updates could affect your benefit amount.
Continue
Review Expenses
Your address has been updated
Your address has changed. Please review and update all your housing and utility expenses. If you don't review and update your housing and utility expenses, we'll reach out to get this information from you. Phone bills do not need to be updated.
Review your shelter and utility expenses
Your address has changed, and we want to ensure your household continues to receive the correct level of support. Your shelter and utility expenses may need to be updated to reflect your new address. If we don't hear from you, your benefits may be affected. Please take a moment to review and update these details now.
Continue to submit
Update expenses	